Supporting

The Ruth Myles Fund

The Ruth Myles Fund is a registered charity, supporting the Ruth Myles Unit at the St George's Hospital. The unit specializes in the treatment of Leukaemia in children and adults.

Centrepoint

Every day Centrepoint houses and supports over 800 vulnerable homeless young people. Centrepoint offers a range of specialist services for vulnerable people who may be leaving care or the youth justice system, young adults who are refugees and those who are parents on their own.

The German School

Updating the school's libraries and research centre.
